In view of the fact that 4 Judges are now sitting in the High Court the number of cases to be reported has been large and if the monthly Volume is restricted to 40 pages the reporting will be considerably in arrear. These cases to be reported are a guidance to the Lower Courts and as such they have to be reported at the earliest opportunity.

The recommendation of the High Court to fix the pages of the Monthly Volume at 60 may therefore be approved. My

To B.T. Kesavaiengar, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

SIR,

I am directed to refer to G.O. No.P.1763-5/Cts.64-27-2, dated 29th September 1927, under which each monthly part of the Mysore High Court Reports is to contain 40 pages of printed matter, the annual subscription being Rs.4/-. Now that there are four Judges in the High Court and two Benches are sitting regularly, it is not possible to include all the decisions which in the opinion of the Judges should be reported in the monthly parts of that size, and the reporting has fallen into arrears. Judgments selected for reporting but awaiting publication at present amount to about 640 pages, and at the rate of about 40 pages a month it would take 16 months to publish them. In consideration of the position the Judges have now decided to exclude and leave for private publication about one-third (in amount) of the judgments already selected for publication in the official Reports. But even that reduction leaves very considerable arrears. In the opinion of the Judges it is desirable that the size of each part of the official Reports should be increased to 60 pages. It is not the intention of the Judges that, when the arrears have been overtaken, the monthly parts shall always be so large as 60 pages; but it will be convenient if that is sanctioned as a permissible maximum. And, if the cost of publication requires it, the annual subscription might be raised without hardship to Rs.5/-.

I am therefore to request that Government may be pleased to sanction the proposed increase in the size of the Mysore High Court
